

FUNDAMENTALISM: Concerns & Responses

Three hour workshop for pastoral and catechetical leaders, adult faith formation and RCIA teams, Catholic school principals, all those responsible for the faith formation of adults, youth and children. Will include presentations, discussion activities, sharing of ideas/resources.

FACILITATORS: Jerry Barney – Pastoral Associate, St. John, West Chester
 Claire Tenhundfeld – Asst. Director, Office of Evangelization & Catechesis

DATE: Wednesday, May 13, 2009 TIME: 12:30-3:30 p.m.

LOCATION: Good Shepherd Church 8815 E. Kemper Rd. 45249

FEE: $10 pre-registration by May 4 (see below)

QUESTIONS: 513-421-3131 Ext. 2733 ctenhundfeld@catholiccincinnati.org

Concerns

Is fundamentalism just literal interpretation of the Bible, or is there something more afoot?
 Why is it gaining ground? What about today's climate makes it attractive to Catholics?
 Are there elements of fundamentalism in some movements finding their way into our parishes?

Responses

Guided by Church teaching, solid theology and consistent catechetical practice, we will underscore approaches that support strong biblical formation for all ages.

~~~~~

REGISTRATION                      FUNDAMENTALISM: Concerns and Responses                      REGISTRATION

NAME _____ PARISH _____

ADDRESS _____ PHONE _____ E-MAIL ADDRESS _____

Return form with $10 check payable to Office of Evangelization & Catechesis by May 4 to:

CLAIRE TENHUNDFELD
 Office of Evangelization & Catechesis
 100 E. 8th St.
 Cincinnati, Ohio 45202