

Deacon Formation Application Meetings

Should you be interested in pursuing a discernment process concerning the possibility of a call from God to the vocation of deacon, you are invited to a meeting concerning the application process to the diaconate formation program. It is necessary that you will have completed at least 5 classes in ministerial studies in the LPMP or its equivalent at another institution by August 15, 2009 to begin the application process. I encourage you to include your wife in this invitation so she can be part of this discussion as well.

The meetings are scheduled for the following locations and times:

Saturday, March 7, 2009 12:30 pm -- Athenaeum of Ohio,
Room 122 (6616 Beechmont Ave., Cincinnati, OH 45230)

Saturday, March 21, 2009 12:30 pm -- St. Dominic Parish,
Room 5A&B (4551 Delhi Pike, Cincinnati, OH 45238)

Saturday, April 4, 2009 12:30 pm -- St. Christopher Parish,
Parish Center (435 E. National Rd., Vandalia, OH 45377)

If you will be attending one of the above meetings it is necessary for you to contact the Office of the Diaconate to give your meeting choice, name, parish and whether you will be alone or with your wife. The Office of the Diaconate number is (513) 421-3131. You can also register for a meeting through e-mail at deaconoffice@catholiccincinnati.org. I would like to assure sufficient seating, application materials, handouts, etc.
