

Join us for Morning of Reflection, Dialogue and Spiritual Renewal with Oscar Cardinal Rodriguez of Honduras, a fellow seeker of justice for migrants on the topic of:

“Spiritual Food for the Journey: Renewing our Zeal for Justice and Solidarity with Immigrants”

Saturday, September 13, 2008

8:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

At St. Clare Activity Center, Hartwell
80 Compton Rd., Cincinnati, Ohio, 45215

Primary sponsor: Mission Office, Archdiocese of Cincinnati

Scripture theme:

From the Beatitudes, Matthew 5:

“Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for justice: for they shall be filled . . .

Blessed are they who are persecuted for justice’s sake: for theirs is the reign of God.”

Morning will include:

- ❖ Time for private and communal prayer.
- ❖ A dramatization by local migrants demonstrating their struggles.
- ❖ A talk by and conversation with Cardinal Rodriguez about his anxieties for migrants and his hopes for immigration reform.
- ❖ Brief input on the Church’s view on immigration reform and coming legislation with Tony Stieritz of the Social Action Office.

Intended audience: Vowed Religious, Pastors/Priests, Parishioners involved in social justice, Hispanic, and migration ministry, High school teachers, Archdiocesan Office staffs, and Members of Social Action Office’s Parish Catholic Collaborative of Cincinnati.
