Father John Krumm

Father Krumm has been ordained 33 years and served in numerous roles in the Dayton area. He has been a Pastor for 28 years, presently serving at St. Brigid's in Xenia, and St. Augustine in Jamestown. One important aspect of his ministry has been his involvement in the movement of forming Small Church Communities as they connect to parish life. Father Krumm has served on the Board of National Alliance of Parishes Restructuring into Communities (NAPRC) for nearly 20 years and manages its office. NAPRC provides training, resources, and support for Small Church Communities. SCCs' are about helping people connect their faith and life regularly in all that we do in our parish, home and work. For many participants SCCs have become a sign of hope and life in our "ever-changing" times.
