

Getting Around

Archdiocese of Cincinnati

MAP OF THE COUNTIES OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF CINCINNATI

The Archdiocese of Cincinnati covers 19 counties in south-western Ohio. Public Transportation is available in the major metropolitan areas of Cincinnati and Dayton. However, getting around the rest of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati requires some knowledge of the area.

For MCP Speakers who are flying in to the Archdiocese of Cincinnati...

There are two major cities within the Archdiocese of Cincinnati—Cincinnati and Dayton.

There are two international airports within the Archdiocese: Greater Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky Airport (CVG) and Dayton International Airport (DAY). CVG is actually located in the state of Kentucky, just across the Ohio River from Cincinnati.

- If your mission appeal is a county in the northern half of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati (please see map at left), we suggest you make arrangements to fly into Dayton International Airport, located in Montgomery County.
- If your mission appeal is in Hamilton, Clermont, Highland, Brown, Adams, Butler, Warren or Clinton County (please see map at left), we suggest you fly into Greater Cincinnati Airport.
- If you are coming for the MCP seminar. You will want to fly into Greater Cincinnati Airport as well.

Please know that unless your mission appeal is within the Greater Cincinnati or Greater Dayton areas, you will need to rent a car to get to your destination. Public Buses do not go from city to city and finding transportation to the rural areas of the Archdiocese is impossible. Also, you can not depend on the members of the parish to which you are assigned to provide transportation. Most pastors have schedules that are too busy to provide transportation. You will need to be able to take care of yourself while you are here.
