Reflection: Renewing Our Commitment to Catholic Elementary and Secondary Schools in the Third Millennium

There are four goals set forth by United States Conference of Catholic Bishops document entitled Renewing Our Commitment to Catholic Elementary and Secondary Schools in the Third Millennium. The first one is "Catholic schools will continue to provide a Gospel-based education of the highest quality." Keeping this in mind, please address the following questions:

What is working to achieve or address this goal?

In what ways is your school/diocese meeting this goal?

What could be done better?

What obstacles to achieving this goal are in your control?

Describe what you need to do to improve the current situation.

What obstacles are there that are not in your control?

Considering the obstacles out of your control, when does “if only they would do ____, then we could meet this goal” ever enter your mind? What do you wish would be done?

What are your final thoughts, suggestions, or comments about the document?
