

Called to teach.

Part 1

After viewing Videos 1 & 2 of The Ministry of Teaching, please answer the following reflection:

How would I describe the dream God has for me personally as a teacher?

After viewing Videos 3 & 4 of The Ministry of Teaching, please answer the following reflection:

What is the mission and purpose of Catholic schools? What can I do in my classroom – especially if I am not a religion teacher – to keep the mission of the Catholic school alive?

After viewing Videos 5 & 6 of The Ministry of Teaching, please answer the following reflection:

What's my 'why?' Why do I teach at a Catholic school? When am I most impactful as a teacher?

After viewing Video 7 of The Ministry of Teaching, please answer the following reflection:

What are some creative ways I can bring Jesus into my daily classroom life?

After viewing Video 8 of The Ministry of Teaching, please answer the following reflection:

What are some examples of holy moments I can create in my classroom tomorrow? How would I talk to my students about creating holy moments?

After viewing Video 9 of The Ministry of Teaching, please answer the following reflection:

How am I doing in each of the four areas (physical, spiritual, emotional, and intellectual) to avoid or overcome the feeling of being overwhelmed? Describe.

After viewing Video 10 of The Ministry of Teaching, please answer the following reflection:

To whom will I turn to for advice as a Catholic school teacher? What is the best advice I've ever gotten in this area?

After viewing Video 1 of Truth, Beauty, and Goodness, please answer the following reflection:

What do I consider the best point made in the video? How does watching this video better prepare me for representing the Catholic faith to my students?

After viewing Video 2 of Truth, Beauty, and Goodness, please answer the following reflection:

What do I consider the best point made in the video? How does watching this video better prepare me for representing the Catholic faith to my students?

After viewing Video 3 of Truth, Beauty, and Goodness, please answer the following reflection:

What do I consider the best point made in the video? How does watching this video better prepare me for representing the Catholic faith to my students?

After viewing Video 4 of Truth, Beauty, and Goodness, please answer the following reflection:

What do I consider the best point made in the video? How does watching this video better prepare me for representing the Catholic faith to my students?

After viewing Video 5 of Truth, Beauty, and Goodness, please answer the following reflection:

What do I consider the best point made in the video? How does watching this video better prepare me for representing the Catholic faith to my students?

FOR OFFICE USE ONLY

Approval by

Date
Approved

Date
Recorded