Archdiocese of Cincinnati OFFICE FOR DIVINE WORSHIP AND SACRAMENTS E-NEWS

January 2017

Word from the Director

Dear Friends in Christ,

I hope you are having a most blessed Christmas season and peaceful beginning to the New Year!

This past year was filled with many graced moments as we celebrated the Jubilee Year of Mercy. I will miss the intentional reflection on the meaning of mercy in our lives and our call to live mercy every day of our lives. However, I look forward to a new year with new inspiration and new challenges. Perhaps the most significant 2017 event for the ODWS is the planning and preparation for the annual convention of the National Association of Pastoral Musicians (NPM), which is taking place in Cincinnati the week of July 10 -14, 2017.

We have taken great care to ensure that there is exceptional liturgical programming for the 2017 NPM convention. Following are a few highlights:

- There will be a Liturgy Institute (six sessions) that will provide a basic study of liturgical foundations for those who want to grow in their understanding or begin their study of liturgy.
- Secondly, there will be five Hovda Lectures focusing on the Eucharist and Ecclesiology.

Both the Hovda Lectures and the Liturgy Institute feature top-notch presenters. You will not want to miss these opportunities for further study in the liturgy!

- Additionally, there will be a Youth Music Institute, a la "Laudate style." This is a program your high school students who serve as music ministers will not want to miss. Along
