Guidelines and Rules for Behavior Junior High Summer Leadership CAMP 2010

1. Show respect for other people, their property, and the facilities.
  - LISTEN when others are talking
  - CLEAN UP after yourself
  - DON'T HARM yourself or others
  - NO CURSING, SWEARING OR PUT-DOWNS
2. Participants are expected to be quiet and in their beds at the designated "lights out" time. No food or drinks are permitted in the rooms.
3. Participants are not permitted in the rooms of the opposite sex AT ANY TIME (Not even if the door is open. NO EXCEPTIONS.)
4. No smoking, drinking, or illegal drug use. Those in possession of any such substances will be immediately dismissed from the program. Parents will be contacted to pick up their child immediately.
5. No weapons of any kind. Those in possession of any weapons will be immediately dismissed from the program. Parents will be contacted to pick up their child immediately.
6. Prescription medications must be given to the Director at the start of the program with a note from parent as to the frequency of administration. Inhalers can be carried by participants with a note from parents. To receive aspirin, Tylenol or any other over-the-counter medication, please fill out a form for this purpose that will be sent with your confirmation letter. No participant will be given any over-the-counter medication from the retreat staff without this. NO PARTICIPANT MAY SHARE ANY OVER-THE-COUNTER MEDICATIONS WITH ANOTHER PARTICIPANT.
7. UBU: that is, you be you. Wear your name tag at all activities. You must attend all activities, including meals and organized fun activities. You will get several hours on Saturday for supervised recreation time.
8. You will be given an option of activities to do during free time. Participants will be expected to choose from the options given.
9. Do not bring any valuables or anything else listed on the "What Not to Bring" section of the enclosed sheet.
10. The consequence for any serious violation of these rules will be your immediate removal from the program. Parents will be called to pick up you up immediately.
11. Come willing to have fun, meet new people and to "go with the flow." With the cooperation of all participants, this promises to be an outstanding experience for all of us!
